

MEDIA & PHOTO/VIDEO

rules & regulations

Media receive further instructions from the EDC organisation regarding the possibilities and rules that apply in and around the pool and always follow them, even if they do not comply with the guidelines as stated in the EDC press, photo/video, registration and publication policy. Every media request goes through consultation.

do's

- Always take photos without flash.
- Take position in line with the diving board or platform; maximum 1 photographer/filmer at a time.
- Remain in the same position throughout the series.
- Walking around the pool during the competition is possible between the end of the dive and the whistle of the next dive.
- Photographing or filming on the platform is possible on the diving boards during competitions; maximum 1 photographer/filmer at a time.

don'ts

- Do not walk across the long side of the pool and/or behind the diving boards during competitions.
- Do not annoy the clean jumpers or disturb their concentration during the competition.
- Make sure you are not in the line of sight of the clean-jumper during the competition.
- Visual material must never be sexual in nature.
- It is forbidden to film and photograph in the dressing rooms.

interviews

- Interview requests can be submitted to the Public Relations Manager at publicrelations@eindhovendivingcup.nl.
- In all cases, media must request permission from the athlete for interviews and photo and video recording of individual athletes for public use. Either directly to the athlete or through their club or trainer/coach/manager.

general

- Visitors and participants to this event can reasonably expect to see general photos, mood shots and videos on which they may be visible.
- The media may use footage and photographs taken during the competitions and the event for news, atmospheric images and promotional items for the benefit of the event and the clean jump sport. It may not be used for commercial advertising purposes. Permission for this must and will always be sought.
